To,
Much revered
H.H. Swami Kamalnayanacharya Maharaj,
We pay obeisance at your Holy feet.

We are very happy to hear that you are making efforts through your 'Hindu Rashtraraksha Mahabhiyan' to make Devbhumi Nepal a 'Vaidik Sanatan Hindu Rashtra'. The best wishes and support of all Hindutvavadis in Bharat are with you in organizing the huge 'Dharma Sabha' to make Nepal a 'Hindu Rashtra'.

Nepal has since times immemorial been identified as a Vaidik Sanatan Hindu Rashtra in the form of a Devbhumi (Land of Deities), Shivabhumi (Land of Lord Shiva), Tapobhumi (Land of penance), Dnyanbhumi (Land of knowledge) and Gorakshabhumi (Land of protection of cows) under the tenets of Deity Shri Pashupatinath; however, due to the anti-Hindu school of thought and terrorist tendencies of the leftists, Nepal lost its position as a Hindu Rashtra and was declared a 'secular' country.

Today, Constitution (Provisional) 2063 is effective in Nepal, in which its 'secular' and Republic status have been made irrevocable. Consequently, Dharma in Nepal is facing increasing threats such as that of religious conversions, cow-slaughter. The population of Hindus in Nepal is 82%, most of who feel that Nepal should once again become a Hindu Rashtra.

Hindu Janajagruti Samiti has always (and will do in future too) morally, politically and in all other ways supported Hindus who as individuals or through organizations, aspire that Nepal becomes a Hindu Rashtra again.

If the 'secular' Government of Bharat interferes directly or indirectly to prevent any movement today or in the future in Nepal to make it a Hindu Rashtra again or the Constitution of the Hindu Rashtra be brought into effect in Nepal, Hindu Janajagruti Samiti will make suitable representations to the Government of Bharat.

I pray at the Holy feet of God for success in your efforts and that of Hindutvavadis in Nepal to make Nepal a 'Hindu Rashtra'.

Yours Sincerely,
Dr. Charudatta Pingale
