Sub: Request to stop selling prints of M.F. Husain's paintings on your website

Respected Sir/Madam,
Namaskar,

We at Hindu Janajagruti Samiti have received several complaints from devout Hindus regarding the sale of M F Husain's paintings on your website. We were surprised and shocked to know that your website includes prints of M.F. Husain's paintings along with those of other painters.

We have found on this link : <https://www.archerindia.com/m-f-husain-durga>

We would like to bring to your notice that MF Hussain has hurt the Religious and National sentiments of crores of Hindus and Indians because of his blasphemous painting of Hindu deities and naked Bharat Mata.

More than 1,250 police complaints had been lodged against him apart from court cases throughout India. He has been accused of outraging religious sentiments, promoting enmity between different religious groups, selling obscene material and disturbing National integrity, thereby committing offences under several sections of the Indian Penal Code. He has also been accused of committing offenses under section 2 of the prevention of insults to National Honour Act.

The proposed Roopdhar award 2006, Raja Ravi Varma Award, auction of his Rs. 6 crore painting by Khushi Foundation at the Turf Club and others have been canceled and his paintings were removed from various exhibitions due to large scale of protests throughout India.

In view of above we request you to immediately stop the sale of Hussain's paintings on your website and stop promoting and glorifying a painter who has repeatedly denigrated our Motherland and Hindu deities.

We at Hindu Janajagruti Samiti have campaigned to educate people about such denigrations that occur through various products, and after learning about the denigration, many companies have removed the offending products. Please refer to our website <http://www.hindujagruti.org/hjs-activities/stop-adharma-practices> to see our ongoing and successful awareness campaigns against the denigration of Hindu Dharma.

Hindu Janajagruti Samiti is a registered NGO in India doing social, Hindu Dharma related and national welfare work. The Samiti is also active throughout the world, educating people about Hindu Dharma in a scientific way, campaigning against malpractices done as Hindu Dharma related practices and solving problems related to the misrepresentation of Hindu Dharma.
